

The 'north star' pays homage to the historic logo and motto, and the associated symbolism of guidance, direction, hope and inspiration

The 'rays' represent the wide range of areas students come to the school from, but also the many varied learning pathways offered at our school

The book represents education and learning across all faculties

The bookmark is a symbolic encouragement to 'make your mark'

The left-hand page of the book represents the history of the school that's already written

The right-hand page of the book represents the opportunity for students to write own story / create their own future

The three distinct segments of the logo pays respect to the three First Nation's mobs of the Barossa region

The line work depicts the landscape of the region – the valley, paddocks and vineyards
