

WOMEN'S STUDIES

Learn how media representation of gender influences our everyday lives. Listen to stories and perspectives of women who are overlooked by mainstream narratives and find examples of empowering women from the past and present.

PREREQUISITES: WILLINGNESS TO SHARE IDEAS AND PERSPECTIVES. WILLINGNESS TO READ EXTENDED TEXTS AND PARTICIPATE IN COLLABORATIVE DISCUSSIONS

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

01. Learn how the past continues to influence the present and how we can influence the future.

02. Analyse how gender is a social construct by examining how it exists in our society.

03. Examine global struggles for empowerment.

Transferable Skills

- Sharing information and proposing new ideas.
- Demonstrating empathy, assertiveness and tact.
- Defining the problem and contributing factors
- Collecting, analysing and organising information
- Being open to new ideas and techniques

Assessment

Stage I	Text Analysis (50%); Group Assignment (20%); Issues Analysis (30%)
Stage II	Text Analysis (20%); Folio (30%); Essay (20%); External Component (30%)

VOCATIONAL PATHWAYS

- Certificate IV Youth Work
- Diploma Counselling
- Certificate IV Legal Studies

TERTIARY PATHWAYS

- Bachelor of Arts
- Bachelor of Psychology
- Bachelor of Social Work

CAREERS

- Psychologist
- Legal professional and advocate
- Politician
- Teacher/Lecturer
- Youth/Social worker

SACE STAGE 1 | 10
CREDITS ONE SEMESTER

SACE STAGE 2 | 20
CREDITS FULL YEAR

ATAR SUBJECT