

CHILD STUDIES

The subject focuses on the important role parents; educators and significant adults can play in supporting the well-being, development and education of young children. Students will use inquiry based research to cover topics within the course. The course is 30% practical and 70% theory.

PREREQUISITES: NIL

WHAT WILL YOU LEARN?

01. Become a confident positive group member.
02. Understand how young children grow, play and learn.
03. Learn how to support the development of young children.

Transferable Skills

- Listening
- Understanding and respectfully sharing thoughts and ideas
- Working effectively with all class members
- Giving and receiving constructive feedback
- Managing own learning

Assessment

Stage I	50% Practical Activity 20% Group Activity 30% Investigation
Stage II	50% Practical 20% Group Work 30% Investigation

VOCATIONAL PATHWAYS

- Certificate III Early Childhood Education and Care
- Certificate IV Education Support
- Certificate IV Youth Work

TERTIARY PATHWAYS

- Bachelor of Early Childhood Education
- Bachelor of Nursing
- Bachelor of Occupational Therapy

CAREERS

- Early childhood Specialist
- Special Educator
- Nurse
- Early Years Educator
- Social Worker

SACE STAGE 1 | 10 CREDITS
ONE SEMESTER/FULL YEAR

SACE STAGE 2
FULL YEAR

NOT AN ATAR SUBJECT