OSHC EDUCATORS DAY

On July 30, 2025, OSHC Educators Day was celebrated with the theme “Recognition and Appreciation”. Children participated by creating thank-you cards, drawing appreciation posters, and writing notes to express gratitude for the educators' dedication and care. These heartfelt gestures not only acknowledged educators' hard work but also fostered a culture of kindness and respect within the community.

VACATION CARE

The Vacation Care program comes out on Friday 15th of August, Week 4. Make sure you secure your spot by filling out the booking form, then you can either email or drop it in at OSHC or the school front office.

PARENT INFORMATION

Parent Easy Guides offer guidance on raising children from birth to eighteen years old. We provide information regarding parenting approaches, strategies, and resources for assistance. The information stand is situated adjacent to the sign-out bench near the big sliding glass doors in TR9. Please help yourself to the available handouts and information.

A document titled “Local Community Services” is located in the information stand, and it contains important phone numbers for new families to the area.

REMINDERS

OSHC offers care on a Pupil Free Days. If you need care, you will find the sign-up sheet two weeks leading up to the day on the sign out bench in TR9. On school closure days, OSHC does not open. This terms school closure falls on Friday the 5th of September.

ACCOUNTS

Please make sure that your account is paid fortnightly and does not exceed $250. Failure to do this will result in all care being cancelled until the account is paid.
