At Mawson Lakes School, we will plan, implement and review our bullying prevention strategies. We will do this with our Governing Council, staff, students, families and local community.

- Make our values and expectations visible and lived, display them in every classroom, reference them in gatherings, acknowledge students who uphold them, and ensure staff model them.
- Create safe, inclusive play areas, quiet zones, and collaborative learning spaces that naturally foster respectful interactions.
- Develop classroom behaviour expectations with students, revisit them regularly, celebrate progress, and reflect together on how they can be improved.
- Build a culture of trust where students feel safe to speak up, provide reporting options, regular wellbeing check-ins, and visible follow-through on concerns raised.

Teach

We will explicitly teach respectful behaviours and expectations about bullying in the classroom.

Our actions

- Build staff skills to respond well to bullying.
- Teach about bullying in all year levels. Include how to prevent, identify, respond to and report bullying and cyberbullying.
- Explicitly teach positive behaviour and social and emotional skills. Guide students to have healthy relationships, both in person and online. Do this across all subject areas.
- Use teachable moments when a conflict occurs. Teach about respectful and appropriate behaviours.
- Use restorative questions to help students reflect on their actions, understand the impact on others, take responsibility, and work towards repairing harm. Encourage them to consider what they would do differently next time and how they can restore trust in the relationship.

Intervene

We will intervene in specific incidents of bullying or observed bullying behaviour.

Our actions

- Take bullying seriously. Respond to reports of bullying or observed bullying behaviours.
- Use fair and consistent responses to bullying or suspected bullying.

Definitions

Bullying

A national definition of bullying has been endorsed by the Education Council.

Bullying is an ongoing and deliberate misuse of power in relationships through repeated verbal, physical and/or social behaviour that intends to cause physical, social and/or psychological harm. It can involve an individual or a group misusing their power, or perceived power, over one or more persons who feel unable to stop it from happening.

Bullying can happen in person or online, via various digital platforms and devices and it can be obvious (overt) or hidden (covert). Bullying behaviour is repeated, or has the potential to be repeated, over time (for example, through sharing of digital records).

Bullying of any form or for any reason can have immediate, medium and long-term effects on those involved, including bystanders.

Single incidents and conflict or fights between equals, whether in person or online, are not defined as bullying.

Bullying has three main features

It involves a misuse of power in a relationship

Conflict or fights between equals are not defined as bullying. Bullying occurs where there is a power imbalance. This might come from:

- the context. For example a number of children acting against one child
- personal characteristics. For example different physical, emotional or social development.

It is ongoing and repeated

One incident of misbehavior is generally not defined as bullying. Schools will still respond to all incidents of misbehavior.

One act by one person might be bullying if:

- the behaviour adds to a series of other people's behaviours that misuse power and result in harm
- it can be shared online or with technology to a wide audience, or repeated with multiple views.

It involves behaviours that can cause harm

Bullying can cause physical and psychological harm.

Physical harm can include injury. It can also include theft or damage to belongings.

Psychological harm can include:

- anxiety
- not wanting to go to school
- lack of interest in school
- isolation and depression.

Psychological harm can last some time. It will depend on a student's situation and the support available to them. Support might come from family, school and friends.

Bullying Prevention Policy and Plan

A fear of being bullied can create psychological harm.

Examples of types of bullying:

Physical: hitting, kicking, tripping, pinching, pushing or damaging or stealing belongings.

Verbal: verbal abuse, name calling, insults, taunting, intimidation, threats.

Social: social exclusion, lying, spreading rumours, unkind facial expressions or body language, mean and condescending looks, playing jokes to embarrass and humiliate, mimicking and damaging someone's reputation or social relationships.

Cyber: Cyberbullying is online bullying. It uses technology, including social media platforms. Verbal and social bullying can be cyberbullying when they occur online.

Cyberbullying includes:

- abusive texts and emails
- hurtful messages, videos and images, including images that have been changed
- sharing personal images and videos without consent
- pretending to be someone else online to be hurtful.

Harassment, discrimination and violence

Bullying, harassment, discrimination and violence all create or add to a negative environment. This can make students feel unsafe and unable to reach their full potential.

Harassment

Harassment is a behaviour that targets an individual or group. This can be due to their: identity, race, culture or ethnic origin; religion; physical characteristics; gender; sexual orientation; age; or ability.

It offends, humiliates, intimidates or creates an unsafe environment. It might be a pattern of behaviour or a single act. It might be directed randomly or at the same person. It might be on purpose or unintended.

Discrimination

Discrimination happens when people are treated differently to others. This can be because of their: identity, race, culture or ethnic origin; religion; physical characteristics; gender; sexual orientation; age; or ability. Discrimination interferes with people's right to fair treatment and equal opportunities.

Violence

Violence is the intentional use of physical force or power. It can be threatened or actual, against another person. It might result in psychological harm, injury or in some cases death. It might involve provoked or unprovoked acts. It can be one incident, a random act or can happen over time.

Bullying, harassment, discrimination and violence may be based on gender, race, sexuality, culture, religion, disability and care status. Bullying, harassment, discrimination and violence for any reason is not acceptable in South Australian public schools. It will be responded to.

- prevent bullying and harassment
- respond when it happens
- support those involved and affected by bullying.

The Australian Student Wellbeing Framework elements are leadership, inclusion, student voice, partnerships and support. They guide our practices and responses to prevent and reduce bullying in our school community.

School leaders and staff

- Provide and take part in professional development to build skills, knowledge and confidence about preventing bullying. Including how to recognise, respond and manage it.
